To Whom It May Concern

Thank you and congratulations to Denis Belliveau for his fascinating and inspiring presentation, "In the Footsteps of Marco Polo," this past November. The combination of video clips and Q&A was the perfect mix for our audience of students, staff, and faculty at the University of New Mexico. Denis impressed with a wealth of information and breadth of his knowledge about the history, geography, culture, politics, and customs of the places he visited on this amazing journey.

Thanks again for this wonderful opportunity.

Sincerely,
